

CALL FOR PAPERS: GRASFI PhD Workshop April 2-3, 2024, Paris

A GRASFI PhD workshop in sustainable finance will be hosted at EDHEC Business School, organized by EDHEC, Université Paris-Dauphine, HEC Liège and Maastricht University. The workshop will take place in-person in EDHEC Paris Campus, 16-18 rue du 4 Septembre.

The submission is open to both early stage or more advanced theoretical and empirical work on Sustainable Finance including, but not limited to Climate Finance, Asset Pricing, Impact Investing, ESG Investing, Corporate Governance, and Non-Financial Reporting.

Submission process

The workshop will organize three tracks: early-stage ideas (track 1), intermediate work (track 2) and job market papers (track 3). PhDs applying for track 1 are expected to submit a long abstract, while for tracks 2 and 3, PhDs are expected to submit a full paper.

Please submit your paper (PDF) to amine.alaoui@edhec.edu by February 23, 2024. Please indicate the name of your supervisor and affiliation to a GRASFI member university. Applicants must be enrolled as PhD students at the time of the workshop.

The program committee's decision will be announced in 1st March 2024. Selected students will receive a travel grant (reimbursement of expenses up to 145 EUR) to facilitate their attendance.

We invite also PhD students from GRASFI member universities to apply to serve as discussants.

Program

On 2nd April, a get-together in the form of a speed-meeting will provide participants with an opportunity to pitch their research and connect with researchers from GRASFI member universities. This will be followed by a dinner in the beautiful city of Paris.

On April 3rd six paper presentations and discussions by PhD candidates, along with sessions addressing PhD-related topics. Organizers will allocate time for participants to exchange ideas on future activities that GRASFI could organize to support PhD researchers from member universities.

Program Committee:

Rob Bauer (Maastricht University), Marco Ceccarelli (VU Amsterdam), Serge Darolles (Université Paris-Dauphine), Marie Lambert (HEC Liège), Emmanuel Jurczenko (EDHEC Business School).
