Dominique Cerutti, President and Deputy Chief Executive Officer of NYSE Euronext, becomes the new mentor of EDHEC's Financial Economics track

Nice, Paris, 17 January 2011 – EDHEC Business School, a major provider of management sciences training and research, and NYSE Euronext, the world's leading and most liquid exchange Group, announces today that Dominique Cerutti, President and Deputy Chief Executive Officer of NYSE Euronext, is to become the new mentor of EDHEC's Financial Economics track dispensed on the Nice campus. The official mentoring ceremony will take place at 6.00pm on Monday 17 January 2011.

EDHEC's Financial Economics track prepares students for the financial world of tomorrow. The course is taught entirely in English and provides skills in finance, economics and accounting, underpinned by the expertise of EDHEC's Economic and Financial Analysis & Accounting research centres.

The official mentoring ceremony provides Dominique Cerutti with the opportunity to deliver an Inaugural Lecture focusing on “The New Challenges for Stock Exchanges in the Post-Crisis World” and to discuss the issues raised with the more-than 300 students attending the event. The conference will be retransmitted on EDHEC's Lille Campus.

Notes:

1. Dominique Cerutti is President and Deputy Chief Executive Officer of NYSE Euronext. He is also Chairman of the Managing Board of Euronext NV, and President of Euronext Paris. Prior to joining the NYSE Euronext Group at the end of 2009, Dominique Cerutti pursued an international career, which notably involved him managing IBM's European operations.
2. EDHEC Business School has been present in the Nice region since 1998. In 2010, it opened a new specialist Financial Economics track as part of the EDHEC Grande Ecole (Master in Management) programme on the Nice campus. The Financial Economics track comprises a second year specialised in Economics & Finance, then a choice from a series of MScs in Financial Markets, Corporate Finance, Management Control, etc.
