

Dr Fatma JEMAA

CURRICULUM VITAE

Education

2016: PhD in Management Sciences with distinction – Université Paris Dauphine (Paris - France).

2012: Master of Philosophy in Management Accounting, Accounting and Auditing – Université Paris Dauphine.

Other training

2018-2023: Assistant Professor Program – Copenhagen Business School (Copenhagen – Denmark).

Academic positions and research stays

Current

2025-present: Associate Professor, Department of Accounting, Control and Legal Affairs – EDHEC Business School (Lille - France).

Past positions

2024-2025: Associate Professor, Department of Accounting, Copenhagen Business School.

2018-2024: Assistant Professor, Department of Accounting, Copenhagen Business School.

2017-2018: Postdoc teacher and researcher, Department of Accounting and Management Control, ESSEC Business School (Cergy - France).

2015-2017: Temporary lecturer – Université Paris Dauphine.

2012-2015: PhD fellow – Université Paris Dauphine.

Past research stays

04-06/2025: Visiting researcher, Department of Organization Studies, WU Vienna University of Economics and Business (Vienna - Austria)

01-03/2025: Visiting researcher, Department of Sociology, Northwestern University (Evanston - USA).

2015: Visiting Research Scholar, Department of Accounting, London School of Economics and Political Sciences (London - UK).

Peer-reviewed publications

Jemaa, F. (2022). Recoupling work beyond COSO: A longitudinal case study of Enterprise-wide Risk Management. Accounting, Organizations and Society (AJG 4*), 103, 101369.

Jemaa, F., Jeppesen, K. K., & M'hirsi, N. (2023). Institutionally sustaining or abandoning mandatory joint audits: The contrasting cases of France and Denmark. European Accounting Review (AJG 3), 32(4), 1025-1052.

Jemaa, F. & Ben Khaled, W. (2015). Prudence as a moral origin of emerging organizational practices (in French). Revue française de gestion, 41(248), 93-108.

Selected presentations at conferences

Hakala, N. & Jemaa, F. Framing market-climate governance: A longitudinal case study of climate transition as an investor concern. 6th Financial Reporting and Auditing as Social and Organizational Practice (FRASOP) workshop, 20/12/2024, London, UK.

Hakala, N. & Jemaa, F. Framing market-climate governance: A longitudinal case study of climate transition as an investor concern. 14th Interdisciplinary Perspective on Accounting Conference, 04/07/2024, London, UK.

Hakala, N. & Jemaa, F. Infrastructuring field conditions for the governance of climate transition: The Case of TCFD Task Force. Journal of Management Studies workshop on Sustainability Governance, 23/05/2024, London, UK.

Jemaa, F. & Gleasure, R. Keeping friends close and enemies closer: a critical analysis of discourse in Big 4 accounting firms. Accounting, Organizations and Society workshop on Distributed Ledgers, 16/12/2019, London, UK.

Jemaa, F., Jeppesen K.K. & M'hirsi, N. Institutional work and audit regulation: a study of joint audit in Denmark and France. The 12th Interdisciplinary Perspectives on Accounting Conference, 11/07/2018, Edinburgh, Scotland.

Jemaa, F. Risk Management Adoption as Recoupling Work on Practices and Ends: the Case of the French Postal Group. The 9th Symposium on Process Organization Studies, 21/06/2017, Kos, Greece.

Grant and scholarships

Mobility grant, Francophone Association of Accounting

Mobility grant, Doctoral School of Paris Dauphine University (awarded twice)

2012-2017: Doctoral scholarship, Paris Dauphine University

Teaching and course management

Teaching activities and course coordination at Copenhagen Business School

2019-2025: Teacher and coordinator of Cost & Management Accounting in Msc Minor in Accounting & Finance (34 hours per student; 7.5 ECTS; 1 group of 60 students per year).

2018-2025: Teacher and coordinator of Cost & Management Accounting in Msc IMM - International Marketing and Management (34 hours per student; 7.5 ECTS; 1 group of 130 students per year).

2022-2024: Master thesis supervision in Msc ASC - Accounting, Strategy & Control

2019-2022: Teacher of Cost & Management Accounting in Msc ASC - Accounting, Strategy & Control (34 hours per student; 7.5 ECTS; 1 group of 180 students per year).

2018-2019: Teacher of Economic Performance in Service Firms in Msc in Service Management (34 hours per student; 7.5 ECTS; 1 group of 60 students).

Teaching activities at ESSEC Business School – Cergy Pontoise

2017-2018: Teacher of Strategic Management Control in Master of Business Administration (25 hours per student; 4 ECTS; 1 group of 70 students).

2017-2018: Teacher of Cost & Budgets in Bachelor of Business Administration (25 hours per student; 3 ECTS; 2 groups of 70 students).

Teaching activities at Université Paris-Dauphine

2015-2017: Teacher of Accounting & Financial Information in Bachelor of Business Administration (36 hours per student; 4 ECTS; 1 group of 30 students per year).

2012-2017: Teacher of Management Accounting & Control in Bachelor of Business Administration (36 hours per student; 4 ECTS; 3 groups of 30 students per year).

Member of PhD committee

Anne Martin (2021). The French University reform: A comparative study of institutional logics in budgeting practices.

Academic citizenship

Ad-hoc reviewer for Contemporary Accounting Review (AJG 4).

Ad-hoc reviewer for Accounting Forum (AJG 3).

Ad-hoc reviewer for Critical Perspectives on Accounting (AJG 3).

Ad-hoc reviewer for Accounting, Auditing & Accountability Journal (AJG 3).

Ad-hoc reviewer for International Journal of Auditing (AJG 2).

2018-2024: Member of the committee advising the Head of Department called “Department Forum,” Department of Accounting, Copenhagen Business School.

2024: Member of the working group on the Head of Department job advertisement, Department of Accounting, Copenhagen Business School.

2021-2025: Coordinator of research seminars, Department of Accounting, Copenhagen Business School.

Languages

French-Arabic: mother tongues

English: fluent

Scientific focus areas

Risk management – The impact of digital change on control and auditing – Green Transition – Institutional work – Decoupling and Recoupling