

Financial Times Executive Education 2019 ranking: EDHEC enters the world top 10 for Custom programmes for individual companies

Press release

Paris, 3 June 2019 – EDHEC Business School confirms its growing global status in the Financial Times Executive Education 2019 ranking published today. After rising 17 places from the previous year, EDHEC joins the world top 10 for Custom Programmes designed for specific companies.

This strong gain also lifts EDHEC 13 places to 18th worldwide in the combined ranking covering both Custom Programmes (designed for specific companies) and Open Programmes (inter-company programmes for top managers). EDHEC also ranks among the top three French business schools worldwide on the two types of programmes assessed.

EDHEC's 10th place ranking worldwide for Custom Programmes this year underscores its focus on providing tuition and research of true practical use to companies and the business world as a whole.

EDHEC obtains its best scores on the following criteria: campus & facilities (2nd worldwide), new skills and learning (3rd worldwide), customer support, preparation and follow-up (5th worldwide).

"We are very proud of this progress in the Financial Times ranking and the recognition it means for our close ties with businesses. In today's digitalizing world, EDHEC's Executive Education programmes give managers and senior executives the tools they need to make the best decisions in a complex and fast-changing world", comments Stéphane Canonne, Associate Dean, Executive Education and MBAs at EDHEC Business School.

About EDHEC BUSINESS SCHOOL

Founded in 1906, EDHEC is now one of Europe's top 15 business schools<sup>1</sup>. Based in Lille, Nice, Paris, London and Singapore, and counting over 90 nationalities on its campuses, EDHEC is a fully international school directly connected to the business world. With over 40,000 graduates in 120 countries, it trains committed managers capable of dealing with the challenges of a fast-evolving world.

Harnessing its core values of excellence, innovation and entrepreneurial spirit, EDHEC has developed a strategic model founded on research of true practical use to society, businesses and students, and which is particularly evident in the work of EDHEC-Risk Institute and Scientific Beta.

The School functions as a genuine laboratory of ideas and plays a pioneering role in the field of digital education via EDHEC Online, the first fully online degree-level training platform.

These various components make EDHEC a centre of knowledge, experience and diversity, geared to preparing new generations of managers to excel in a world subject to transformational change.

EDHEC in figures: 8,600 students in academic education, 19 degree programmes ranging from bachelor to PhD level, 184 professors and researchers, 11 specialist research centres.
