LIBRARY RULES

- You are able to borrow materials as soon as you receive your EDHEC student card.
- you are able to borrow the following:
 - up to 8 books for a limit of three weeks,
 - up to 4 magazines for a limit of one week
- If no-one has reserved these materials in the meantime, you can renew your borrowings, on demand, by ,  or at the front desk.
- If you return any materials late, you will not be able to borrow anything else for an equal time period.
- If you return materials late on four occasions, you will be excluded from the borrowing facilities in the library.
- Library items must not be marked, defaced, mutilated or damaged in any way. A replacement copy will be required for damaged or lost materials.
- In exchange of your student card, the latest copies of periodicals and books with a yellow label stating "hors prêt / On reserve" can be read in the reading room.
- This facility is strictly reserved for the use of EDHEC Business School faculty and students.
- In case of library rule's noncompliance, the Library staff is authorized to remove and exclude individuals from the Library's premises.
- It is forbidden to bring food or drinks into the library (with the exception of water).

The library is a quiet work zone and talking should be kept to a minimum. Thank you for your consideration of others.
